Dear Sir,

This has reference to your letter dated 6th March, 2009 seeking clarification on the status of Doctoral Degree obtained by you from ‘Universitat Autonoma de Barcelona, Barcelona, Spain’.

It has been observed from the papers that you after obtaining your Bachelor and Master Degrees in the field of Veterinary Science from Tamilnadu Veterinary and Animal Sciences University, Chennai, have further pursued Doctoral programme from ‘Universitat Autonoma de Barcelona, Barcelona’, an accredited Institution in Spain.

Although, AIU has not specifically accorded recognition to the Doctoral Degree programme of accredited universities in Spain yet keeping in mind the duration of the programme and eligibility requirements, we would consider the Doctorate Degree obtained by you as equivalent to the corresponding Degree of an Indian University.

As per AACRAO and British Council Publication, the degrees awarded by the accredited universities in Spain are accepted at par by the British/US Universities for admission to higher courses.

The admission giving University/Institute will verify your original certificates.

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
